CVMA® POLICY 8-2-13

Effective date: August 14, 2013
Revised 29 January 2017

SUBJECT: Failure to Pay Chapter Dues When Required

1. The decision to charge annual chapter dues, not to exceed $20.00, is a chapter decision.
2. If a chapter charges dues and a member fails to pay dues, disciplinary action can be taken provided:
 - a. Chapter bylaws specifically state that chapter dues will be required and the deadline for paying dues;
 - b. Chapter bylaws specifically state that failure to pay dues will result in the member's 201 file reflecting "member not in good standing for failure to pay chapter dues".
3. Maximum discipline that can be applied for failure to pay chapter dues is the member being denied chapter voting privileges.
4. Member does not lose voting rights on national issues, bylaw proposals, nor State/Regional/National officers so long as national dues are current.
5. POC for this policy is the National Sergeant at Arms (NSAA).
