CVMA® POLICY 8-3-13

Effective date: September 2, 2013

SUBJECT: Proof of Combat Service Clarifications

1. Hazardous Duty Pay, in and of itself, is not proof of combat assignment. By itself, it does not qualify an applicant for Full Member status in the CVMA.
2. Regarding service in the Republic of Korea, the applicant must prove assignment on the DMZ and having received "Imminent Danger Pay" or "Hostile Fire Pay".
3. The "Army of Occupation Medal", awarded for service in West Berlin does not qualify an applicant for Full Member status in the CVMA.
4. Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, by itself, does not qualify an applicant for Full Member status in the CVMA.
5. The Air Force Expeditionary Service Ribbon must have the "Gold Border" to qualify an applicant for Full Member status in the CVMA.

POC for this policy is the National Secretary (NSEC)
